

Kevin M. Johnson M.D., F.A.C.S.

Dr. Johnson was born and raised in the Inland Northwest in Colfax, WA on a wheat farm, where his family still lives. He attended Pacific Lutheran University where he played football for the Lutes and participated in Track and Field while obtaining his degree in Biology and pre-medical studies preparing for medical school.

He attended the University Of Washington School Of Medicine in Seattle graduating in 1991. Following medical school, he was accepted into the General Surgery Residency program at the University of Washington. During his 6 years of residency, he spent a year in the lab performing basic science research in the area of stress hormones and their relationship to parenteral intravenous feeding.

He has been in private practice in surgery since 1997 and has developed a significant interest in the medical and cosmetic use of laser light applications and co-founded Reflections Med Spas in January 2005. Through extensive and ongoing education in this rapidly changing and growing area of medicine he has become a clinical physician trainer, invited guest speaker for two major laser companies, and a laser and cosmetic surgery consultant for the insurance industry. He has treated thousands of patients for a wide variety of cosmetic concerns using lasers, intense pulsed light, injectables fillers, Botox cosmetic, and has a special interest in body sculpting and contouring using laser assisted liposuction techniques.

Dr. Johnson is a board certified General Surgeon and a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons. He is a member of the American College of Phlebology, The American Society of Laser Medicine and Surgery, and The American Academy of Cosmetic Surgery.
